

Sauvignon Republic Cellars Fact Sheet

Wines:	Sauvignon Blanc exclusively
Mission:	To produce distinctively styled and flavorful wines from the world's finest Sauvignon Blanc regions
Founded:	2003
Partners:	John Buechsenstein, Winemaker and GM John Ash Paul Dolan Tom Meyer
Current releases:	2003 Sauvignon Blanc Russian River Valley 2004 Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough
Future releases from:	France's Loire Valley, Friuli in Northern Italy, South Africa, Austria, Chile
Production:	Will vary from several hundred to a few thousand cases of each wine
Packaging:	Stelvin screwcap for freshness, consistency and reliability Each label is designed with an icon reflecting the wine's origin: Russian River Valley – the trillium, a spring wildflower in the redwood and Douglas fir forests Marlborough – the Maori koru, the spiral of a fern frond representing life, energy and harmony
Winemaking:	Small batch production; individually crafted; no oak, no malolactic
Convictions:	Sauvignon Blanc, more than any other grape variety, expresses terroir . Sauvignon Blanc is compatible with the widest spectrum of foods. Sauvignon Republic supports sustainable viticulture.
Website:	www.sauvignonrepublic.com

1450 Airport Blvd., Suite 120 Santa Rosa, CA 95403
Phone: 707-528-4172 trois@sonic.net

September 16, 2004